

Access to Innovative Health Technologies - The case of Vaccines -

Workshop under the auspices of the Fondation Brocher
Hermance, Switzerland, 4-6 November 2018

Sunday 4 November
19:00 - 22:00	Welcome reception and dinner Keynote speaker: Rino Rappuoli, GSK Vaccines, Siena, Italy "The quest for innovative vaccines: keys for success"
Monday 5 November
Morning session: "Setting the scene" Chair: Paul-Henri Lambert, University of Geneva, Switzerland
9:00 - 9:15	Welcome & Introduction Michel Goldman, I3h Institute, Université libre de Bruxelles, Belgium
9:15 - 9:45	Philippe Sansonetti, Collège de France, Paris, France "The fight against infectious diseases: an endless odyssey"
9:45 - 10:00	Discussion
10:00 - 10:30	Marie-Paule Kieny, Inserm, Paris, France "Vaccines as keys to global health"
10:30 - 10:45	Discussion
10:45 - 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 - 11:45	Bill Hausdorff, PATH Vaccines, Seattle, USA "Tackling health inequities through innovative vaccine technologies"
11:45 - 12:00	Discussion
12:00 - 12:30	Pierre Coulie, de Duve Institute, UCLouvain, Belgium "Cancer immunotherapy: lessons learned and new perspectives"
12:30 - 13:00	Free discussion
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch

Afternoon Session: "Building blocks to tackle public health threats"

Chair: Marie-Paule Kiény, Inserm, Paris, France

14:00 - 14:30	Claire-Anne Siegrist, University of Geneva, Switzerland "Digital tools for widespread usage and monitoring for vaccines: the Swiss experience"
14:30 - 14:45	Discussion
14:45 - 15:15	Anatole Krattiger, Prisma Innovations, Geneva, Switzerland "The use of blockchain and ledger technology in vaccine distribution and access"
15:15 - 15:30	Discussion
15:30 - 16:00	Coffee break
16:00 - 16:30	Michel Kazatchkine, UN Special Envoy for HIV/AIDS, Geneva, Switzerland "Lessons learned from the fight against AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria"
16:30 - 16:45	Discussion
16:45 - 17:15	Jayasree Iyer, Access to Medicine Foundation, Amsterdam, Netherlands "The map towards vaccine access worldwide"
17:15 - 18:15	Free discussion
19:30	Dinner Fred Fenter, Frontiers, Lausanne, Switzerland "Open Science in vaccine research and development"

Tuesday 6 November

Morning session: "Public-Private Partnerships"

Chair: Marc Bonneville, Institut Mérieux, Lyon, France (tbc)

9:00 - 9:30	Ellen 't Hoen, Global Health Unit, University Medical Center, Groningen, Netherlands "Intellectual property challenges in assuring access to medicines"
9:30 - 9:45	Discussion
9:45 - 10:15	Hilde Stevens, I3h Institute, Université libre de Bruxelles, Belgium "New models for collaborative innovation"
10:15 - 10:30	Discussion
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 - 11:30	Martin Friede, WHO Initiative for Vaccine Research, Geneva, Switzerland "Technology transfer in the field of Vaccines"
11:30 - 11:45	Discussion
11:45 - 12:15	Geert Leroux-Roels, University of Ghent, Belgium "Multi-stakeholder collaboration in practice: lessons from the Innovative Medicines Initiative"
12:15 - 12:30	Discussion
12:30 – 13:00	Free discussion
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch

Afternoon session: "How to foster public support for vaccination"Chair: Claire-Anne Siegrist, University of Geneva, Swotzerland (tbc)

14:00 - 14:30	Stuart Blume, University of Amsterdam, Netherlands "How vaccines became controversial and how to restore public trust"
14:30 - 14:45	Discussion
14:45 - 15:15	Tamás Bereczky, European AIDS Treatment Group, Berlin, Germany "Immunization of patients: the right to receive qualitative information"
15:15 – 15:30	Discussion
15:30 - 16:00	Hester Kuipers, International AIDS Vaccine Initiative, Amsterdam, Netherlands "Advocacy for vaccine research and development: from grassroots support to political leadership"
16:00 – 16:30	Discussion
16:30 - 17:00	Farewell coffee
19:30	Optional dinner