

Neuroscience, Ethics and Law: New Challenges for Human Identity, Freedom and Responsibility

Wednesday 6 November 2013

9:00 - 9:30 Registration

Section 1. NEUROSCIENCE, ETHICS AND LAW

9:30 - 10:20 Bernard Baertschi (University of Geneva): "Ethics and Neuroscience"

10:20 - 11:10 Owen D. Jones (Vanderbilt University): "Key Uses of Neuroscience in Law"

Coffee-break

11:20 - 12:30 Case discussion: responsibility (in 3 groups)

LUNCH

Section 2. IDENTITY

14:00 - 14:50 Kim Do-Cuénod (University of Lausanne): "Neuroscience of the self in health and disease"

14:50 - 15:40 Pim Haselagar (Nijmegen University): "It may (not) have been me: Neurotechnology, personal identity and responsibility"

Coffee-break

15:50 - 17:00 Case discussion: identity

DINNER

Thursday 7 November 2013

Section 3. FREEDOM

9:30 - 10:20 Stephen J. Morse (University of Pennsylvania): "The Neuroscience Challenge to Freedom and Responsibility."

10:20 - 11:10 Matthias Mahlmann (University of Zurich): "Freedom as Mysticism?"

Coffee-break

11:20 - 12:30 Case discussion: freedom

LUNCH

Section 4. RESPONSIBILITY

14:00 - 14:50 Amedeo Santosuosso (University of Pavia): "Boundaries of the individual and limits of legal responsibility"

14:50 - 15:40 Tade Spranger (University of Bonn): "Legal issues arising from neuroscientific research and application"

Coffee-break

15:50 - 17:00 Conclusions of the discussion groups. Concluding remarks.