

9h00 to 9h30 : welcome coffee

9h30 to 9h50 : Frédéric Gilbert : Preparing the Ethical Future of Nanobionics Brain Implants for Clinical Trial.

Associate Program Leader & Research Fellow - University of Tasmania , Bioethics

9h50 to 10h10 : Christine Straehle : The Ethics of international Surrogacy

Dr. Assistant professor - University of Ottawa, Philosophy

10h10 to 10h30 : Marc Rodwin : Reforming Drug Policy & the Pharmaceutical Industry

Professor of Law - Suffolk University Law School, Law

10h30 to 11h45: Coffee break

10h45 to 11h05 : Clemente Maia Da Silva Fernandes / Monica Serra : Access to health care: a comparative study of Brazil, United States and England legislation and realities. Ethical, legal and social implications

PhD (Post-Doctor), Professor - São Paulo State University, Bioethics
PhD (Post-doctor) - Associate Professor - São Paulo State University, Bioethics

11h05 to 11h25 : Marc Hall : Coverage of Undocumented Immigrants: Differing Conceptions of Social Justice

Professor - Wake Forest University, Bioethics

11h25 to 11h45 : Anne Hudson Jones : A Narrative History of Memorial Medical Center in New Orleans in the Aftermath of Hurricane Katrina: Ethics in Medical Catastrophe

Professor & Kempner Chair in the Humanities in Medicine - University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston, Other

11h45 to 12h05 : Kelly Muraya : Gender relations and the implementation and use of child nutrition interventions within households in rural Kenya

PhD Student - KEMRI-Wellcome Trust Research Programme, Other

12h05 – Buffet lunch served by the Foundation in the Brocher Centre

13h15 to 13H35 : Ulf Schmidt : Secret Science of Man: A History of Chemical and Biological Weapons' Research

Professor of Modern History - University of Kent, History

13H35 to 13h55 : Stéphanie Pache : Thérapies féministes : une histoire sociale de la santé mentale

Visiting scholar - EHESS, Paris, History

13h55 to 14h15 : Orio Ikebe : A Comparative study of the ethics of reproduction in Japan and Egypt: Negotiation between ethics, politics and cultures

Program Specialist – UNESCO, Bioethics

14h15 to 15h35 : Ari Gandsman : Debating the Right to Die in Canada: an anthropological analysis of a legal and social movement

Assistant Professor - University of Ottawa, Antropology