

Monday, April 08, 2024

09h00: welcome and introduction

9h05: Bortz Gabriela, CONICET, Assistant Researcher, Science and technology studies

- COVID-19 vaccines in Latin America: capabilities, imaginaries, and State making. Lessons from Argentina and Brazil

09h25: Casper Monica, University of Arizona, Professor and Associate Dean, Sociology

- Dying for Birth: Maternal Mortality, Race, and Human Rights

09h45 : Funer Florian, Institut für Ethik und Geschichte der Medizin, Eberhard Karls Universität Tübingen, MD, MA, Magtheol (Academic Researcher), Bioethics - Medical Ethics

- Pushing the boundaries of advance healthcare directives under conditions of compromised decision-making capacity

10h05 : Montello Martha, Harvard Medical School, Lecturer, Bioethics - Medical Ethics

- Narrative Ethics in Clinical Medicine

Coffee break 10h25 - 10h45

10h45: Norman Wendy, University of British Columbia, Professor, Medicine Gynecology

- "The role of contraception access in unintended pregnancy"

11h05: Rahimzadeh Vasiliki, Baylor College of Medicine, Assistant Professor, Bioethics - Medical Ethics

- Medicine in the Metaverse

11h25: Rijssenbeek Julia, Wageningen University and Research, PhD Candidate, Philosophy

- Conception and ethical treatment of life in synthetic biology and in the life sciences

11h45: Sangith Atul, Université Libre de Brussels (ULB), PhD Researcher, Global | Public Health

- Defining Frameworks within Collaborative Multi-Stakeholder Partnerships to Enhance Access to Medicines in Low- and Middle-Income Countries

Lunch break 12h05 - 13h00

13h05: Sheard Laura, University of York, Associate Professor, Sociology

- A longitudinal look at Long Covid: understanding the healthcare journeys of people living with Long Covid, over a two year period – A qualitative study

13h25: Truog Robert, Harvard University, Director, Center for Bioethics, Harvard Medical School, Bioethics - Medical ethics

- Controversies in defining death and organ transplantation

13h45: Van Kolschooten Hannah, Law Centre for Health and Life, University of Amsterdam, LL.M., PhD candidate, Law

- EU regulation of Artificial Intelligence in Health: Consequences for Patients' Rights

14h05: Van Wijngaarden Els, Radboud University Medical Center, Associate Professor in Contemporary Meanings of Ageing and Dying, Bioethics - Medical ethics

- Memento mori revisited: unravelling the complexity of the role of choice regarding death and dying in old age

14h25: Zehelein Eva-Sabine, University of Bamberg, PD Dr., Adjunct professor, Anthropology

- Infertility Narratives

14h45 - End of presentations